Re: United States v. Brian Washington, 16 Cr. 628 (GBD)

Dear Judge Daniels:

The parties respectfully write to request that the defendant's sentencing in the above-referenced matter, currently scheduled for September 6, 2023, be adjourned to a date after November 30, 2023. When the parties were last before the Court, on June 1, 2023, the defendant was placed into a Residential Reentry Center ("RRC") for approximately six months, and the Court adjourned sentencing to a later date in order to have some degree of visibility, prior to sentencing, into how the defendant was adjusting to his RRC placement. The Government understands from Probation and defense counsel that the defendant has been doing well at the RRC, and that he has been compliant with his treatment services. The parties accordingly propose adjourning the defendant's sentencing to a date after November 30, 2023—the date that the defendant is anticipated to complete his RRC placement.

Respectfully submitted,

DAMIAN WILLIAMS
United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York
